Life-Changing Income

SHARING PRODUCTS & THE OPPORTUNITY WITH OTHERS

When you sign-up a customer you are changing a life.

When you enroll a Brand Partner you have the ability to change countless lives.

My overarching why is...at the beginning of the summer, I had no plans of even being able to put my son in summer camp. He is special needs and it's $700 a week. He wanted to go, but that was nothing more than a dream. Last month, Purium managed to pay for his entire summer at camp. He is having the best time of his life making new friends and new memories. I want to keep supporting him...Purium gives me hope that he can thrive with more options available to him.

This month's why is ...Flying my mom from Canada to help for a week (she's already a Brand Partner!) and saving for the future for my son.

-Nichole

I became a Brand Partner to pay for my products and I ended up earning $500 just in bonuses alone in my first month - not including commissions. As a busy mom of 4, I'm passionate about helping my friends and family uplevel their entire lifestyles, just like me!

-Anne

LIVING YOUR PURPOSE WITH PURIUM

The Japanese philosophical concept called Ikigai (translation: "a reason to live") is a beautiful method to use to see how much Purium aligns with you and your life path.

When I started, Purium was going to be a side hustle. Then it quickly became my main source of income! I love helping people with their health journey, the flexibility to work the hours I want, and aligning my core values with the work that I do.

COVER A MONTHLY EXPENSE IN YOUR FIRST FEW MONTHS! HOW WILL YOU CHOOSE HOW TO SPEND THE MONEY YOU EARN WITH PURIUM?

I had $30,000 credit card debt with over $900 in interest payments per month. It was crushing. Within 4 months of becoming a Purium Brand Partner, I was able to pay off half that debt. For the first time, I saw light at the end of the tunnel and I could finally breathe again.

Being able to retire my husband has given us the ability to take off at a moment's notice for a fun day trip, a flight to a fave destination or just head to the beach or our favorite cafe in the middle of the week. No one has to ask for time off! It's also given us the ability to do the things that are most important to us, including helping family and giving back.

The healing that we get with Purium is so much more than the nutrition and gut repair. It's much more than the limitless business opportunity with the free training and supportive community. The most potent medicine lies in the encouragement to share our story. That is where we get to challenge ourselves and rise to the occasion to see what we're made of. The healing begins when you share your story.

When people are inspired, they take action. When people take action, it creates change. When people are taking action and creating change, that's your influence. When you have influence and are creating change, you are making a difference, and you also make money!

-Tracie
